HILO'S NARROW BRIDGES.

The narrow width of the bridges that are being constructed by the Government in and near Hilo :s a cause for much complaint. Hilo is not a onehorse town to such an extent that it finds a one-horse bridge sufficient for its needs, and the new bridges may properly be considered one-horse af fairs, since two teams can hardly pass each other on them. Hilo teamsters are both plous in disposition and Chesterfieldian in manner, but it can hardly be wondered at that they sometimes fall out over questions of precedence and right-of-way, using language that would shock a deaf man, when they get blocked up in large numbers as they frequently do at the Waiakea and Wailuku bridges. The worst of it is that the new bridges are no better,

The pedestrian, also, has a kick. Strictly speaking, a pedestrian has no rights which anybody is bound to respect. The man who walks instead of taking a hack puts himself outside the pale of human sympathy to a large extent. However, sometimes you can't get a hack. In any case if the man who walks attempts to cross any of the above mentioned bridges be is a good candidate for sausage meat. He would better swim. It has been suggested that the road board build unto the regular bridge structure sidewalks outside the railings, which would then separate the teams from the pedes trians, and be a convenience for both This is quite generally done through-out the United States, and where traffic is at all heavy public safety de mands it.-Hilo Tribune.

THE FAMILY FRIEND.

No remedy has as good a right to that title as Kickapoo Indian Oil. It is good for internal and external use; it is pain's most powerful panacea. No one can say "I won't" have neuralgia rheumatism, earache or any other acute pain, but everyone who has a bottle of Kickapoo Indian Oil in the house can say with confidence won't" have neuralgia or any other pain long. The power of this oil over pain is marvelous. Toothache, earache, headache, neuralgia and rheuma tic pains, dysentery, dirrahoea, cholera morbus, co'ic, cramps, and all acute pains yield instantly to it. You are always proof against pain with a bottle in the house. Hobron Drug Co. agents for Kickapoo Indian Remedies
